

Imagine a baby girl 5-day old. Gasping for each breath. With tubes connected to her tiny little arms and legs. Every hour struggling to survive.

By some miracle, she lives.

She is now 3-years old. But her tummy is mostly empty. By some miracle, she gains strength.

She attends school. But is pulled out in 7th Standard. She is made to work to support her family.

By some miracle, she learns a trade and gets a job.

She turns 19 years old. And is married off. Her husband hits her. Even though she is pregnant.

By some miracle, her husband grows to respect her.

She slaves through her pregnancy. Cooking, cleaning, collecting water. Hardly sleeping.

By some miracle, she delivers a healthy baby girl.

With her baby now an adult, she slows down. Her body is getting old. She needs friends and hobbies. By some miracle, she finds answers to her dreams.

Now imagine what her life would have been like without those miracles?

SNEHA is working the miracles. But we have to do more. Much more. And we need your help to be able to do it.
